Subdividers Sue

Would Test Orland Ordinance

(CNS) A writ of mandamus commanding Orland Park officials to approve a plat of subdivision of land outside the village is sought by the Fernway Construction company in circuit court.

The suit states the plat meets with all county ordinances and state statutes, also the company has complied with all village ordinances.

Approval by Orland Park is needed because the limits of the village's 1 1/2 mile jurisdiction falls on the property on an angle bisecting the land. The plat establishes four lots of a half acre each, located at the northeast corner of 161st street and 88th avenue.

According to the suit, the village officials refused to approve the plat on the basis that it doesn't conform to village requirements for curbs and gutters and streets according to village specifications. Such demands are "unreasonable and arbitrary" the suit asserts. The suit seeks an order commanding the village president, village clerk, and the chairman of the village plan commission to affix their signatures to the plat. The plat was submitted to the village on July 13 to obtain the necessary official signatures, the suit says. On July 27 notification that approval wasn't forthcoming was received, it adds.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Paul M. Smith, Jr. The plat is known as Fernway Unit No. 4.

Home by Christmas?

Turks Still Hold New Lenox Lad

James F. Tomany, 19, of New Lenox, whose enlistment in the U. S. Navy has been spent for the most part as a prisoner of the Turks, hopes to be home by Christmas.

The navy expected him to be free and out of Turkey before now, but so-called Turkish justice grinds along at a snail's pace and young Tomany's estimate may be right.

He wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tomany, last week that his attorney, a Turk, has told him that his trials probably will be spun out thru September.

Just what Turkish authorities are doing now in the Tomany case isn't quite clear. There are some, however, who believe that the officials who have Tomany have hopes of gaining fees and such other sums of money from the United States by delaying his release.

Tomany was sent to a Turkish prison last September. He and another sailor, Bennie Day, were charged with mutilating a Turkish flag, a charge both have steadfastly denied.

There had been some clashes between Turks and U. S. service men about that time. The U. S. was wooing Turkey. It regarded Turkey as a strong ally against the Communies and wanted to keep it that way. Apparently the U. S. was willing to go along with the Turks if the Turks felt that imprisonment of Yanks would settle the clamor of their nationals, according to what information is available.

Tomany and Day were such victims, it is said and were sentenced to prison for 10 months. In that time Tomany was assigned to plaster the walls of his cell. Some of the plaster is alleged to have splattered in the eye of a young Turkish prisoner who was watching the work.

Late this spring charges were filed against Tomany as a result of this incident. He was charged with criminal negligence and held to be responsible for the loss of an eye suffered by his fellow prisoner.

Prison officials testified they had considered the eye incident an accident. The prisoner at first claimed that Tomany had splattered him intentionally but later denied this and agreed that it was accidental. The prisoner's mother was satisfied it was an accident. Other prisoners testified that they believed it was an accident.

The U. S. government paid the Turk and his mother 20,000 Turkish lire or $2,300 American in compensation for the loss of the eye, and the expectation that Tomany would be released immediately. That was weeks ago.

But the case was continued to permit further testimony. The navy isn't sure what the continuances are for, nor does young Tomany. But it seems that while everyone connected with the plastering incident is satisfied that damage to the prisoner's eye was accidental, there is an expert witness who is convinced that it was intentional.

He wants to testify to that effect and was to have been given an opportunity to do so this week. How long the case will be dragged out is difficult to say but Tomany's attorney believes it will be weeks before it is settled. There may be other experts to contend with, it was said.

Young Tomany wrote his parents that his case has become just one of many in which the Turks have seized American servicemen on various charges and thrown them into jail. He said that he was fortunate compared to another American who has just finished an 11-month prison term and has now been "banished" to some remote corner of Turkey for three years.

How Turks are entitled to treat American citizens in this manner puzzles service men, Tomany indicated. He added that service men in Turkey are hopeful that a congressional inquiry will be launched to look into their treatment by this nation's so called ally.

Farm Youngsters Map Plans for Permanent Home of Will Co. Fair

Mrs. Mabel Krapf, 4H leader of the Green Garden Snip N' Snack club and also president of the Will County 4H Junior Fair Association, announced a fund drive for the Fred H. Francis 4H field in New Lenox.

At the recent 4H Show held at Peotone, the building committee, headed by Glenn Vail and Mrs. Ivan Archibald, both of New Lenox, projected the need of five livestock buildings, one meeting building, and one utility building. The building committee had bids on these buildings, along with electricity, plumbing and landscaping, to a total of $100,000.

The finance committee, headed by Fred Kurtz of Joliet and Bob Noel of Elwood, reported how the township chairman was selected by the finance committee and how this goal of $100,000 was to be achieved.

At this meeting Mrs. Krapf also explained to the audience as to how much activity had already taken place, such as the roads, the well, the culverts, the area was seeded, and the roads are rockd.

At the present time the finance committee and the community chairmen are meeting to make the final plans for the fund drive to be finished by Nov. 6, the night of 4H Achievement. The breakdown of the $100,000 is for $20,000 to come from 4H members thru their activities, $40,000 to come from rural areas, and $40,000 to come from urban friends of 4H.

The New Lenox Riding club gave a cash contribution of $764, which was the proceeds from the spring Horse Show, and the Monee Merry Maids and Monee Clod Busters gave a $1,000 check which was the proceeds from their old fashioned chicken dinner picnic.

Mrs. Krapf expressed the hopes that a 4H home for Will County youngsters would soon be a reality.

L-W Exchange Student Arrives

Hanna Heymann, of Hannover, Germany, who will attend senior classes at Lincoln-Way high school this year under the student exchange program supervised by the American Field Service, arrived this morning.

She was met at the Greyhound bus station in Chicago by the Henry Blomquist family of New Lenox, with whom she will reside during her stay in America. The bus arrived at 6 o'clock.

Tomorrow Frauline Heymann will be taken to the school by Mrs. Blomquist that she may meet the administrative staff that works thru the summer months. She also is scheduled for a session with news people and photographers.

Assistant Principal Earl Dieken said he would also use the opportunity to discuss the course of study the student from overseas wishes to take.

This will be the second consecutive year that Lincoln-Way has had a student from Europe. Last year Ella Juul Jensen, of Denmark, was enrolled and she enjoyed her stay very much.

A Lincoln-Way girl, who will be a senior this year—Kay Gersich, of Lincolnwood, is spending the summer in Germany under the exchange plan. She is taking some special school work there and expects to return to her classes here about the second week in September.

Cook Co. Farm Owners Protest Zoning Change

Cook county farmers are up in arms over the proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance which would do away with all farm land.

Land now used for agriculture, as well as all other land in unincorporated areas would be classified as residential under the proposed comprehensive amendment to the zoning ordinance.

The farmers are opposed to this on the grounds that if their land is classified as residential property it will be assessed at a much higher valuation and they contend that it is assessed high enough now.

They point out that if a farm is adjacent to a tract that has been sold to subdividers, at say $1,700 an acre, the assessor is likely to follow such a valuation when he comes to their land.

The Illinois Agriculture association is lending its support to the Cook county farmers and advise them to fight the proposed change.

Because of the protests the zoning board of appeals of Cook county is now conducting public hearings in the various townships. This gives farm owners an opportunity to appear and voice their opinions.

Such meetings are scheduled for Palos and Orland townships next Monday, Aug. 24. The hearings will be in the village halls at Palos Park and Orland Park. The Palos meeting is slated for 11 a.m. The meeting at Orland Park will be at 2 p.m.

A similar meeting will be held at Midlothian at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 26, for Bremen township residents.

Charles Erickson, an Orland farm owner and a former township assessor, is one of a group of farmers in the Orland and Palos area that are urging neighbors to attend the meetings Monday.

Opponents of the proposed liquidation of farm classification of land are hopeful that their protests will bring results. There are 16 members on the board of county commissioners which will decide the question. Ten of these are from the city of Chicago. The others are from the country towns.

Witnesses Hold Circuit Assembly At Lincoln Fields

Lincoln Fields race track activity underwent a complete change Aug. 7, 8, 9 when Jehovah's Witnesses secured the track for their semi-annual circuit assembly. When not in session, hundreds of Jehovah's Witnesses and guests 'refreshed' at temporary cafeteria stations and refreshment stands completely serviced by volunteer personnel.

Peak attendance was reached Sunday afternoon during the assembly's climax when 2,710 assembled to hear Peter D'Mura, district supervisor and special representative from Brooklyn, N. Y., speak of "A Paradise Earth Through God's Kingdom." Mr. D'Mura stated: "Everything that has made man sad will be gone. Wars with their terror and strife will cease, says Micah the prophet. It will be the privilege of deserving men and women to cultivate this cleansed earth under the direction of the Divine Gardener, Jehovah God, extending its beauty to the ends of the earth."

Among those baptized from the Tinley Park congregation were Bertha Wells, 14205 S. Wood, George Franklin, 37 Circle dr. and James Freeman 17450 67th Court.

Two Chevy middleweights prove their rawhide stamina!

Top hands on high-country hauls!

Ask any trucker who's been over Wolf Creek Pass, 10,850 feet up in the San Juans: a 9-mile pull to the summit and low gear all the way down. Mr. C. H. Phillips of Alamosa, Colorado, has a 6403 and a 6503 Chevrolet truck that are up over this route the year round, taking sheep and beef to pasture, later marketing the stock in Denver. In less than a year, his Chevy middleweights have averaged about 50,000 miles of this kind of treatment—and they're going stronger than ever!

Watch Chevy trucks at work out in range country. It's a sight to see the way they pack into high-up mountain pastures and handle through brush and rock like a cowman's favorite cutting horse. Take any truck work for that matter. Chevy middleweights probably handle a bigger variety of jobs than any trucks alive. About anything you name, including work that used to be reserved strictly for bigger rigs. When a truck's built the way a Chevy is, lean-muscled and rawhide-tough, it takes to ugly trails the same way most trucks roll over the highway. It just keeps going, without a big to-do, but looking good every mile of the way. How they do it is your Chevrolet dealer's department. He'll be glad to supply details and specifications on the type of models you need.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

Orland, Summit in Title Game

Police League Leaders to Meet on Saturday

Orland Park's all victorious Police baseball squad faces Summit in the battle for the Cook County Police League championship on Saturday, Aug. 22 at Bedford Community baseball park in Summit at 6 p.m.

Orland finished the season unbeaten in its section of the Cook County Police circuit by beating Robbins on an 11-5 count. It was the second win over Robbins this season.

Schultz and Yunker pitched the triumph over Robbins and the Orland team disposed of Robbins with a balanced hitting attack, every man seeming to make his contribution to victory.

Coach Bill Zinn of the Orland Park aggregation feels, "Our boys will be real tough to beat." Why? "They are a well balanced squad, with any one of them capable of furnishing the needed batting punch at a given time."

"They don't scare and take advantage of every opportunity. I think they are the outstanding team because of their base running. They were causing opponents to make mistakes all season by a great deal of adept base running."

Summit is a rather unknown quantity to those in the southern section of the county. They are plenty good, however, and should not be sold short for one minute.

Zinn did not make any predictions of victory over Summit, but certainly feels that his kids have the ability to overcome most any club in their age bracket.

He is counting heavily on the daring Orlanders to continue with the same dash in the playoffs that they have shown all season. If they can continue, Zinn is looking for a winner.

Church Loop Play-offs Begin Monday

Monday evening at Memorial Park in Tinley the Methodist and Zion Lutheran teams will square off in the first of a double elimination play-off for the championship of the Tinley Park church league. Holy Name will get into the action on Wednesday and possibly Friday.

The action will continue on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday day until two teams are eliminated by two losses.

Holy Name must play a cancelled game with the Nazarenes tonight at Memorial Park.

Holy Name is a heavy favorite and should not have trouble in these games. Thus, it is highly improbable that Holy Name would be knocked out of the playoffs. The Naz-arenes have only won two games on the season.

It is difficult to pick a winner in the playoffs at this point. The season has been a season of even-and-even play. All three top teams have split in the season series of two games.

Actually, if these teams begin splitting with each other, this playoff could go on for probably a week-end and a half to even two weeks.

Not one team appears to be stronger at the present time. None of the three teams have injuries that are hurting them at the present and all three are eager to get started at the playoffs.

The teams have plenty of long ball hitting power. In fact, this is a vital part of the three offenses -- they can score five to eight runs in a given inning with the long ball.

Holy Name might have the slight edge in defensive ability, but might then be a bit shorter on hitting. Then, it becomes more difficult, as you assess the qualities of the teams, to even try to make a prediction of the winners.

It will be a close and probably well played series.

Donkey Ball Game On Tomorrow Night At Manhattan Field

The game will start at 8:15 p.m. and will be played between the Manhattan Shadows softball team and the American Legion baseball team.

Rained Out Last Sunday Dedication of Junior Midget Stadium is Set for Aug. 23

Rained out last Sunday, the dedication and formal opening of the Cooper Stadium, built especially for the use of junior midget auto races, is scheduled to take place this Sunday, Aug. 23 about 1 p.m., providing, of course, the weatherman cooperates.

The track is known as the home of the Illinois Junior Midget association. The names of 25 small fry drivers, ranging in age from 14½ down to five, are carried as the entries. It is located on 159th st., half a block east of U.S. 45.

Mayor W. R. Shussler, Jr. of Orland Park, is scheduled to cut the ribbon that will loose the young drivers. The ribbon cutting will follow the invocation given by the Rev. Robert Plastow, pastor of the Orland Park Methodist church.

Guest speakers will include Ashley T. Wright, Chicago, racing promoter; Emil Andres, of Tinley Park, now retired as an automobile racer after 20 years as such; William O. Fisher, superintendent of Carl Sandburg high school and Arthur Granat, chief of the Orland Park fire department.

Tony Bettenhausen was scheduled to assist in the presentation of trophies and also to speak. He was present last Sunday but previous commitments prevent his appearance this Sunday, it was announced.

Peotone Makes Clean Sweep of Babe Ruth Series With Orland

Behind the four-hit pitching of Vaniten, Peotone swept the Babe Ruth series from Orland Park, 2 games to 0. It was Vaniten in both contests for the lads from Peotone, Orland did not manage to make either game close as Vaniten held them at bay. He struck out 14 batters in the final conquest of Orland.

Peotone scored three runs in the third inning on two singles and error, and another single which scored the 2nd and 3rd runs. The final run for Peotone came in the 7th. Nagel was safe on an error by Nickles. Meyers walked and Werrer singled Nagel home. Meyers was out at 3rd on a fine throw from Knapp to Nickles to end the inning.

Orland scored its lone tally in the last half of the seventh. Knapp opened the inning with a single to left. Zinn walked and when the ball got away on Clausung, both runners advanced.

McGraw hit one between 1st and 2nd which Rosenthal came over and couldn't come up with and Knapp scored. Then Vaniten ended the game by striking out the last three batters. Wow!

"About the only thing people have trouble affording in our present economy is the first of the month." - Pep Mealiffe

Zions Defeat Holy Name To Tie Up Lead In Tinley Church League

Zion Defeats 3-36 Sports

The Zion Lutherans came up with a rash of 11 base hits in the fourth inning, good for 10 runs, which was enough to defeat the first place Saint George Holy Name in the feature game Monday evening in the Tinley Park Church Softball league. Final score was 10 to 8.

Both teams played excellent ball. In fact, Holy Name did not commit one error in the entire contest.

Holy Name jumped away to a 3-1 lead in the first inning. Zion made it 3-2 in the third.

Then the roof just crashed in on Holy Name as the Zion batters ripped the ball to left and right, but oh! what an amount of hitting. They rapped home 10 great big runs. Dale Hartwig cracked a home run in the uprising. Dale had two hits in two times at bat.

Holy Name added four runs in the top of the sixth inning and then another in the top of the seventh. L. Stein, Rick, and Jeveret each connected for three hits for the victorious club.

Zimmerman was the only Holy Name batter to get more than one hit.

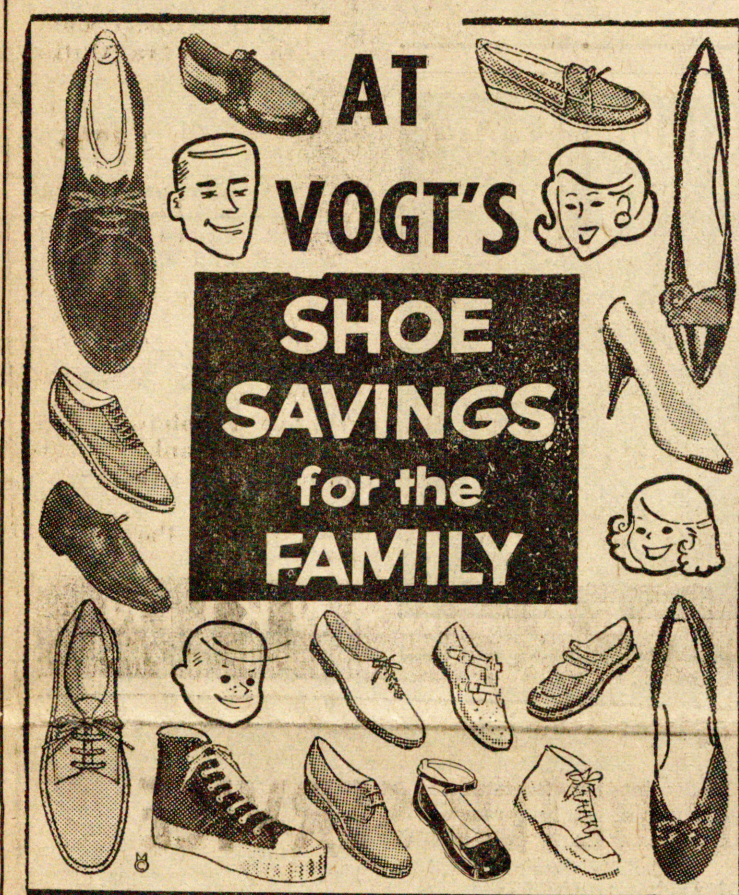

Walter Goebel of Zion held the Holy Name club to 5 hits, but his mates made five errors behind him, which allowed Holy Name the total of

Kladdis Seeks Third Win at Joliet Track

Danny Kladdis, Chicago speedster in his first season at Joliet, will have his work cut out for him when he tries to become the first driver to win three straight features in the midget auto races Saturday night at Memorial Stadium.

Kladdis, who won his second in a row and fourth of the season last weekend, currently is the "hottest" driver at the Joliet track. But if last weekend's feature finish means anything, Kladdis will have to beat out the track's best to win his third straight.

Bernie Wilhelm of Joliet, owner of one feature triumph and a regular contender placed second, and Bob Tattersall of Streator, who has won five, was third. Tony Lenti, Chicago, who is making a comeback this season placed

It was probably one of the best played games of the season from the effort of both teams. It was probably the 1st errorless game by one team-- Holy Name.

This again does not give a bit of superiority to any one team. Holy Name, Methodist, and Zion Lutheran have split with each other. Thus, a play-off will begin on Monday.

In the other two contests on Monday evening, the Methodists took the Reformed into camp, 14-7.

The St. George Knights rallied to defeat the Nazarenes and come out of the league basement, 9-6.

Oak Brook.

One of the most important parts of the games will be the opening ceremonies in Soldier Field, according to Mayor Richard J. Daley, who pointed out that it will be the only time that all of the athletes from all of the participating countries will be on one field at one time.

The opening ceremonies will be one of the most spectacular sights in Chicago history with marching bands, massed athletes and the lighting of the Friendship Torch which will burn during the games.

Sites which will be used for the games include:

North Side: Wrigley Field for baseball; DePaul University Alumni Hall for men's basketball; special course in Lincoln Park for the cycling road race; shooting at the new shooting range in Waukegan; skeet shooting at the Lincoln Park gun club; men's and women's tennis in Lincoln Park, and yachting on a special course off Belmont Harbor.

Central Chicago: track and field and opening and closing ceremonies at Soldier Field; fencing at the U. S. Naval armory; men's and women's gymnastics at the University of Illinois, Navy Pier branch, and yachting in Lake Michigan off Monroe street.

Northwest and West Sides: Women's basketball at Oak Park high school; boxing at the Northwest armory; equestrian sports at Oak Brook polo club and football (soccer) at Hanson park; modern pentathlon at four sites including Arlington Farms in Libertyville; men's and women's swimming and water polo at the new Portage park pools, and men's and women's volleyball at the Proviso high school.

Spoil Banks Grand Stand for Pan-Am Regatta

(CNS) — Spectators will be invited to use the tall, wide spoil banks along the Calumet Sag channel for three miles west of 104th ave. and 111th st., for a good view of the Pan-American games regatta Sept. 2 to 5, the U.S. Army Engineers announced this week.

At the same time, Col. C. F. Mitchim, Chicago District Engineer, made clear that barge and pleasure craft plying the canal on those days must keep clear of the contestants from 11 foreign countries and the U. S. as they determine the champions in various events.

This will be easy to do, Col. Mitchim pointed out, because the entire 3 mile course, extending to the Gulf, Mobile, and Ohio bridge in Lemont, has already been widened from 90 feet to 225 feet to provide an ideal stretch of water for the event.

Overhead markers will indicate rowing lanes and landing floats will be installed, under permits now being processed, he disclosed.

Altho the army engineers have general supervision of the waterway, the regulation of traffic, water borne at least, will be under the U.S. Coast Guard during the regatta.

Capt. George W. Playdon, Coast Guard Group Commander here, asked boat owners to cooperate in keeping the channel clear for the racing.

He urged use of the spoil banks instead of water borne craft as the best vantage point.

"Everyone admires the fellow who doesn't let grass grow under his feet -- unless he uses your lawn to prove it."

-- Morris Bender

a strong fourth.

Others in contention Saturday will include George Sellery of Westchester, Bill Knight of Kokomo, Ind., Willie Wilson of Elmhurst, Jerry Matter of Naperville and Jolietans Bob Hauck and Dick Akins.

Included on Saturday's program will be four heat races, a handicap, 15 lap semifeature and 25 lap feature. Time trials start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

"August is the month when everybody in the office tries to make both week ends meet." -- Earl Wilson

Members of Harvey Moose Lodge 1203, who are attending the 71st annual International Convention in Pittsburg Pa., are Gov. Edward Scully and Secretary Lawrence Ralman, who is serving on the credentials committee at the convention.

The Lodge will hold an enrollment ceremony at 8 pm. on August 26.

Play Appreciation Course Planned For Fall at Carl Sandburg High

Thru the cooperation of Carl Sandburg Adult Education School and the Palos Village Players, a course in How to Enjoy, Understand and Produce Good Plays will be offered to the public during the Fall semester of the evening school program.

According to information made public by William O. Fischer, Superintendent of Carl Sandburg high school, the class will be under the direction of Zay Smith, president of the Palos Village Players and Everett Wyatt, director of Dramatics of the Palos Village Players.

Mr. Smith organized the Palos Village Players 17 years ago, has a long experience in both dramatics and teaching. He has been teaching in the Lyons Township Junior college evening school in LaGrange for the past five years.

The course has been designed for the layman who would like to get greater enjoyment from reading or viewing plays by developing an understanding of what makes a good play. By developing an appreciation for the subtler points of play construction and production the capacity of enjoyment can be greatly increased by the average layman, according to Smith.

This course will be a regular part of the Sandburg Evening school curriculum this fall, which is scheduled to begin about the end of September. It will consist of two hour sessions once a week for ten weeks. The size of the class will be limited and enrollment will be on the basis of "first come". Further information may be had by contacting George W. Davidson of Carl Sandburg High School.

Youngsters Plan Village Flag At Frankfort

Frankfort is to have a village flag that will be used by the girl Color Guard of the American Legion post on its appearances in other communities.

The school children will be asked to submit ideas and prizes will be awarded to those considered best as well as the winner, it was said.

The Frankfort village board has given its approval of the plan and is expected to eventually draft an ordinance setting up an official village flag.

The proposal was submitted to the board at its regular meeting Monday night.

Changes in a proposed subdivision ordinance were discussed at length and it was believed the measure may be ready for adoption at the next meeting, unless other changes are decided upon. The proposed land use map, as drawn by a firm of professional city planners, is also expected to be brought up for adoption at the next meeting and the new zoning ordinance may be brought up for passage at the same time.

The subdivision and zoning ordinances also were drafted by the planners.

The board also announced that water users who are delinquent in their bills will be shut off from service. The minimum water rate in Frankfort has been $10 a year. Patrons are supposed to pay their bills semi-annually, which if held to the minimum would be $5. There are now some people that have not paid for a year, it was reported, and these face loss of water until they pay their bills.

Fails in Attempt To Shoot Wife: Turns Gun on Self

A former Orland township resident is dead of his own hand following a quarrel with his estranged wife last Thursday morning, according to investigators.

The man, Howard Benson, 47, a nurse, was recently residing in Chicago at 2844 Cambridge ave. Last Thursday morning he appeared at the garage at his former home, 8340 W. 135th st. This was about 8:30 o'clock.

His wife, Ethel, told Cook county police and representatives of the coroner's office, that he announced he had come for the car. She said that he began to abuse her and blackened her left eye.

Mrs. Benson said her husband was armed with a gun with which he attempted to shoot her but missed. He then went in the garage, she added, shot himself thru the head. He was instantly killed.

Barbara, Danny and Mary Ann live on Chicago's south side.

The new service station will be called L and M Super Service.

Former Mokenan Writes Book On Great Lakes

A former Mokena resident, a doctor of medicine, has also become an author. He is Dr. Fred L. Whitlock, of Amery, Wis., where he is on the staff of the Cornwall Clinic.

Interested since his youth in the Great Lakes and their tributaries, he has written a book on the subject, "Introduction to the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway."

The book has been five years in preparation and has just been released by Greenwich Book Publishers.

Mrs. Elizabeth Capple, principal of the Mokena grade schools, who had Whitlock as a pupil, has received an autographed copy of the book from him.

When Dr. Whitlock was a student he spent his summers working on the Lakes and after his graduation from the U. of I. college of medicine he became a navy doctor and a part of his service was on the Lakes.

He was a special guest on the voyage made by Queen Elizabeth to open and dedicate the St. Lawrence waterway this summer.

Conduct Tests On Best Lawn Grass for Area

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE

The University of Illinois Turf Demonstration plots at Arlington Heights have shown some interesting results in the first year of existence.

The plots were established to show how different varieties of lawn grass grow in this area, and which types of grass do best with minimal care.

The plots were watered only during severe dry spells and only once weekly during that time. The grass was cut when it grew to three inches and was cut no shorter than two inches.

Different varieties of grass differ in their speed of germination, and in the time it takes them to make a turf.

As usual, perennial rye and redtop germinated rapidly from fall and spring seedings. Both had formed a fair turf by winter but were severely damaged or killed outright by the severe cold.

The fescues, bents and blue grasses were slow to germinate and form a turf. However, the best grass was in these plots. The most outstanding plot was Highland bent sown in fall and cut two inches tall. Spring sowing of these grasses was poor because the turf did not get thick enough to prevent growth of weeds. By mid summer, spring sown plots were completely over-run with weeds and crabgrass. In comparison, the fall sown plots were essentially free of weeds.

In comparing mixtures with straight sown seeds, the mixtures formed a more even turf, more quickly and were better in appearance throughout the season.

In addition to the plots of seeded lawn, one plot was plugged with Zoysia in late spring. This plot is completely covered with weeds, but the Zoysia is growing nicely and spreading. It appears as though it will cover the plot in about four seasons.

At present the nice crop of weeds in some of the plots is well suited for trying various weed control chemicals. Several are to be tested before the plots are re-established this fall.

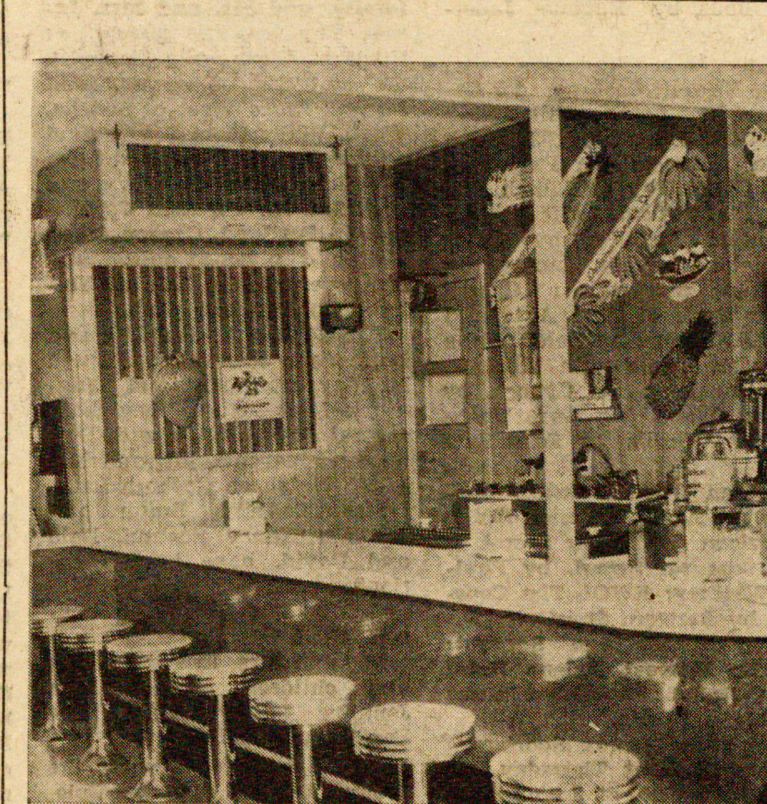

The turf plots are located on the north side of Algonquin road, 1/2 mile east of Arlington Heights road.

Turf plots of interest to homeowners will be set up at the Downers Grove Experiment Station this fall. The station is located just off Rte. 34 about 5 1/2 miles west of Rt. 83. It adjoins the Morton Arboretum.

Weight watchers will be interested to know that dairy foods, while they furnish so much in the way of needed nutrients, account for only one sixth of the food energy in the nation's diet, according to the National Dairy Council. In other words, they're packed with nutrition per calorie.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church at the last regular meeting decided to have a rummage and resale at 9 am. Aug. 26 in the Fellowship hall of the church. On Oct. 22, a turkey dinner is planned and in December the annual bake and fancy goods sale. This year a luncheon will be served.

Americans in 1958 took about the same amount of cream in their coffee—and in other foods—as they did the year before. But usage of cream is only about two thirds what it was during the late 1930's and during the war. Sales of milk cream mixtures, such as half and half, have increased in recent years and have helped to maintain the level of cream sales, says the National Dairy Council.

Chicago City Jr. College to Refund Tuition

(CNS) Tuition refunds of $7.60 per credit hour to suburban students enrolled in the Chicago City Junior College during the 1958-59 school year and the 1958 summer session were approved Wednesday by the Chicago Board of Education. This is nearly half the tuition charge of $15.94 per subject.

The action was based on a stipulation when state aid was extended to cover these students under House Bill 893, of which the board of education took advantage in a claim filed Aug. 1, 1959 with the Cook county superintendent of schools.

The board also authorized establishment of the reduced rate for future students beginning with the Sept. 8 school year. No mention was made in the resolution of summer students during 1959. A proviso for the future is if state aid is less than $7.60 per credit hour, the reduction is to be equal to the state aid.

Dean Peter Masiko Jr. of the college said about 1,000 students living in Illinois suburbs of Chicago are affected. The reduction does not apply to one group: students from other states than Illinois which would mean Indiana.

Illinois Tops in Manufacture of Machinery

Illinois leads the entire nation in manufacture of machinery and fabricated metal products, according to a study of multi billion dollar manufacturing industry groups just completed by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

The only other state ranking first in two of the top 10 industry groups exceeding the billion dollar mark in value added by manufacture in individual states is New York, which leads in production of apparel and in printing and publishing.

Based on 1957 statistics compiled by the U. S. Department of Commerce, the study shows three industry groups exceeding the billion dollar mark in value added by manufacture in Illinois.

They are: Machinery ($3.53 billions), food and kindred products ($1.59 billions) and fabricated metal products ($1.21 billions).

Since 1954, value added by manufacture in Illinois has increased approximately 24 per cent in machinery, 23 per cent in fabricated metal products and 16 per cent in food and kindred products.

What are America's five most popular dairy foods? Fluid milk and cream account for about half of what we eat and drink. Approximately one fourth was consumed as butter. Cheese is next on the list, at one tenth of total output. Ice cream and other frozen dairy foods come next. While consumption of evaporated and condensed milks take nearly 5 percent.

Protest Gas Tax Increase

Get out your typewriters. Unlimber your fountain pens. Sharpen your pencils. Now is the time to come to the aid of your pocketbook.

Last Thursday the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives in Congress approved an increase in the federal tax on gasoline. The committee agreed to a tax hike of one cent a gallon.

If Congress adopts such a recommendation, the federal tax per gallon on gasoline will be four cents, effective Sept. 1. This is still half a cent under the amount asked by the Administration but if Congress gets in a tax raising mood there is no telling where it will stop.

The ways and means committee, of course, gave its approval of the tax rise on the premise that it would be temporary. It is supposed to expire next July.

There is no such thing as a temporary tax increase, as the records clearly show. The only time a tax is repealed is when the material on which it is levied is no longer in use or exists.

The federal highway bureau is planning to spend billions on a road building program and now they say there is no money to pay for it unless the federal gas tax is increased.

This is an old political trick. The public is sold on a program and assured it will cost no more than a certain sum. Once it is underway the bureau boys go into their act. So sorry, they say but costs have doubled or redoubled and the funds on hand are insufficient. So-o, the only thing left to do is dig up more taxes to pay for them.

The federal gasoline tax is now three cents a gallon. Investigators say that nearly half of the revenue from federal taxes paid by highway users is spent on any and every other thing but road building. If all the taxes collected from motorists by the federal government were spent for highways there would be enough to finance the program without more taxes.

But judging from the careless disregard officials at Washington have for the public's purse a large portion of the additional revenues that could be expected by increasing the gasoline tax would also be tossed against the wall.

Soak the motorist has become a standard slogan with bureaucrats and lawmakers. There is no closed season on him. Like the rich, the tobacco industry, the beer and liquor trade, the motorist is always counted as fair game.

Only a few weeks ago congressmen could be heard declaring they would never vote for an increase in the federal gasoline tax. They reasoned there was too much public opposition to such a move. But don't bank on them standing hitched.

The ways and means committee had been reported opposed to such a move too but now it has changed its mind. Other congressmen can change their minds too unless they get a lot of mail from the homefolks, protesting against the tax hike.

The ways and means committee also recommends that a part of the excise tax collected by the government on the sale of new cars and a part of the tax collected on automobile tires and accessories be used for building roads. Such monies are now spent on whatever congress and bureaucrats can dream up.

Plans for the construction of one of the federal interstate highways that will skirt Tinley Park and pass north of Mokena and New Lenox and then south thru a thickly built up section of Joliet are such that millions of dollars will be wasted. The taxpayers will be left holding the bag—as usual.

It is too bad there isn't someone at Washington to follow in the example set by Gov. Stratton. The last session of the Illinois legislature enacted numerous bills in which money was appropriated for projects but without means of raising the necessary funds. The governor vetoed some measures and for the rest issued orders freezing start of construction until the money is available.

rogen. A fertilizer of analysis 10-8-6 contains 10 percent nitrogen. Nitrogen is necessary for the formation of many growth materials, particularly proteins. Plants adequately supplied with nitrogen have a deep green color and grow rapidly. Plants lacking in nitrogen are stunted and the leaves turn yellow starting with the lower leaves.

The second number represents phosphorus. Phosphorus causes good root development and is necessary for proper use of carbohydrates, by the plant.

A lack of phosphorus causes stunting of the plants. The last number represents potassium or potash. This material gives substance to the plant and tends to overcome the effect of excess nitrogen. A lack of potassium causes soft growth and a drying of the edges of the leaves.

In addition to the above materials, some fertilizer contains various minor elements such as boron or magnesium.

Recently some fertilizer producers have come out with "one shot" fertilizers. These contain the chemicals in compounds which are not readily broken down. This makes the fertilizer available to the Last year when it was proposed to amend the judiciary article of the Illinois constitution arguments waxed hot and furious and while the original objective was supposed to deal with streamlining courts of record with an eventual aim of production line or push button justice. At the end it was the justice of the peace system around which the battle surged.

The pounding taken by the J. P.'s had its effect. The general assembly this year passed a law limiting the number of justices of the peace to be elected. There will now be about as many in a county as formerly served the more populous townships and they will be placed on a salary instead of working on a fee basis.

Advocates of this legislation say it will provide for more efficiency and maybe it will but sometimes efficiency can be carried too far.

crowd out many pleasant interludes. When human institutions are reduced to machines and numbers we are going to be in a bad way.

In the course of following the news trade this writer has had occasion to attend numerous court sessions from the high formal tribunals to those manned by justices of the peace and police magistrates.

We appreciate the fact that people don't go to court for laughs or entertainment but the lighter moments are always memorable.

There is a lot of dull, routine in J. P. courts, because there is a lot of dull, routine in our lives but there are moments that are pleasing to recall.

There was the time for instance when a police magistrate endeavored to add some dignity to the proceedings and so impress a party of friends, visitors from another city, with his importance. "My glasses, please, Lieutenant," he ordered, turning to a police officer standing near his bench. "Which glasses does your honor mean?" the officer asked. "Your reading glasses, or your drinking glasses?"

And there was the day in court of the late Justice of the Peace Scotty McCullough, when the defendant was a combination fortune teller and healer who operated a little deadfall where he was doing quite well. The Doctor, as he was known, sometimes made use of a crystal ball on his expeditions into the future but his favorite method was the trance in which he made use of an Indian chief as an astral aide.

Officers from some state bureau—it may have been education and registration—had put the arm on The Doctor for telling fortunes but fortunately for the Doc his clientele did not seem to lose faith because his power had not warned him in time to escape the clutches of the gendarmes.

A couple of his followers—who probably were shills that got a cut of the proceeds rather than true believers—were also in court, hollering foul and urging the release on the grounds that his premises had been invaded without benefit of warrant, despite the fact that the sign on the door said "Come In—Everybody Welcome."

Scotty's court was highly informal and probably would have been tendered by the People vs. Justices of the Peace as Exhibit 1, as evidence of their claim that the system should be reformed.

Scotty presided in his shirt sleeves, winter or summer, and most of the time was puffing on a big, curved stemmed pipe. There were times, of course, like when he was giving an opinion, performing a marriage, arguing with counsel or the principals in a case, or ran out of tobacco, that he didn't have the pipe in his mouth.

But in questioning witnesses or the plaintiff or the defendant he generally had the pipe going, with a batch of Miners and Puddlers of Five Brothers, and talked around the stem. This habit, coupled with a strong Scots accent, sometimes made him difficult to follow but in this instance he was remarkably clear.

The Doc had just finished a long exposition of his powers and had gone into some detail relative to his redskin spirit guide, Chief Minne how how, or what ever his name was.

Scotty appeared impressed. "Tell me 'Dok,'" Scotty addressed the defendant. "D'ye see this Indian chief o'yours real plain when ye call him oop?"

The Doc nodded affirmatively.

"Well, I'll tell ye," Scotty purred, "call this Indian oop now, 'Dok.' You say ye can see him good. I have no doubts but ye do but the thing for you to do is have him here where I can see him. If you can make me see this Indian chief ye can walk oot o' the place free of charge and charges but if I don't see him it'll cost ye $200 and costs."

And there was the time in another J. P. court that the defendant—a phony—pulled out a pistol and fired a couple of shots enabling his honor to negotiate a full flight of stairs in three jumps and land on the sidewalk with his feet in motion. And the J. P. who was a soft touch if a lawyer protested that his clients constitutional rights had been invaded and the police magistrate who was and was not a soft touch when a prisoner professed to have come from his home town, so that spectators could wager among themselves as to the total score on the morning's grist if defenses were built along that line.

There are some J. P.'s who are quite intelligent and some who are not but the same thing can be said about the presiding officers of the other courts, state and federal.

One cannot legislate intelligence.

Answers to What is in Fertilizer Bag

By JAMES FIZZELL,
Assistant Farm Advisor

As plants grow they utilize various chemicals which they pick up from the soil. The three chemicals which are used in the greatest amount, and are most often found to be lacking in soil, are the ones which are commonly found in commercial fertilizers.

The analysis, which is required by law to be printed on the fertilizer package tells the percent of each of the three chemicals present in the package. If one of the materials is not present it is represented by a zero.

The first number, in the series of three, represents nit-

Unusually competent observers predict the steel strike will end about Labor Day. The union is reported to have been bringing pressure to have the national government intervene, but the Administration seems to feel that so long as there is no national need to interfere, it will not do so.

Government intervention would come thru invoking the Taft Hartley Act and an injunction which would send workers back for at least 80 days and appointment of a fact finding board to report on the status of negotiations. The steel companies have expressed the hope that government pressures will not be exerted and allow the union and manufacturers to work out their own settlement.

It is expected that the settlement will give "fringe" benefits with 10 or 12 cents an hour increases and about $4 a ton increase in steel prices. The steel manufacturers are expected to secure some changes in work rules or what they term feather bedding. Steel firms point out that there is little point to investment of millions in new and more efficient equipment if union rules require the same number of men even when not needed. The steel makers are determined on this point of work rule changes. The steel industry is faced with inroads by plastics, cement, aluminum, imports, etc.

Altho the steel strike has made no serious impact on the economy as a whole, some communities dependent on mill payrolls report themselves as being hard hit. About 100,000 workers, aside from strikers, are reported as being idled by the strike.

The railroads, certain of the building trades, etc. are vitally interested in the feather bed issue which is becoming increasingly important with the development of new machines and processes which should lower costs.

It is difficult to explain to workers that the new developments in machines and in processes are essential to our standard of living is to continue rising. The history of such developments is that they increase productivity per man hour and reduce costs of items produced either through longer useful life for items in question or thru unit cost reductions.

To students of history such results are obvious and expected. Invention of the wheel and motors led to greater production at lower costs. Until about 1850 and the invention of the mechanical loom, all cloth was hand loomed and expensive. Introduction of the mechanical loom caused bloody riots in England where farmers and families worked at looming frames far into the night, at home. Looms brought factory production with better and more uniform production.

Financial World for August 12, 1959, carries a special article on auto parts makers. The article point out that despite the current upsurge in sales and profits, industry members continue to expand their non-automotive activities. This move is to secure more immunity from the erratic rate of new car produc-

Water-Sewage Laws Signed By Governor

(CNS) A new law providing for joint operation of water works or sewer system by two or more municipalities, was signed last week by Governor Stratton.

Known as House Bill 1394, introduced by Rep. Jack Walker of southeast Cook county, the new law amends the Cities and Villages act to provide for the appointment of one commissioner for each 5,000 persons in any two or more municipalities which jointly acquire and operate a waterworks or sewer system.

The law provides that different rates may be charged in the several municipalities constituting the commission. Also signed was House Bill 815, by Rep. Ralph T. Smith, which allows a municipality to enter into a contract with the owner or operator of a waterworks system to act as collector of sewer service charges exacted by the municipality for the use of its sewers.

A third law on a related subject, also signed, was House Bill 1392 by Rep. Redmond, authorizing the Chicago Sanitary district to enter into agreements with cities and villages lying partly within and partly without the sanitary district, for the disposal of all sewage collected by such municipality.

The nation's dairy cows continue to beat their own production records. They produce more milk per cow each year. In 1958, production per cow hit an all time high, even though cow population dropped to a record low of 19.8 million head. National Dairy Council reports dairy herds are smaller than at any time during the last 30 years.

Even tho there are fewer cows on the nation's dairy farms, milk production last year was the third highest on record. It stood at 125.2 billion pounds and was exceeded only by the 125.9 billion pounds produced in 1957 and the 125.5 billion pounds in 1956. Last year's downturn in production was the first since 1952.

This desire to diversify their business also stems from increasing tendency of the car makers to produce their own parts.

Truck parts sales have been especially good as truck sales seem headed for their best year since 1951 when the Korean War swelled sales volume.

The article points out that the more attractively situated parts manufacturers are Borg Warner, Eaton, Tinklen Roller Bearing, Electric Storage Battery, and Clevite. These are well diversified firms.

Amend Laws on Forming Cities and Villages

(CNS) -- Four amendments of the law governing incorporations and disconnections of territory were signed into law by Gov. Stratton following adoption by the recent legislative session, in line with some complaints of abuses.

Senate Bill 772 by Senator Little requires a population of not less than 2,500 including 2,000 living in immobile dwellings, compared to 1,000 under the previous law, in order to incorporate as a city.

Senate Bill 850 by Senator Canfield provides the county judge shall determine whether an area petitioning for incorporation as a village constitutes a village or not. If he finds it does not, none of the land described in the petition may be included in a subsequent petition for incorporation within one year. If he finds it does, he shall fix a time and place of election. This becomes effective Jan. 1, 1960.

House Bill 459 by Rep. Parkhurst provides a method of disconnecting territory from a fire protection district which has no bonded indebtedness if such territory would receive greater benefit of fire protection from another district or municipality.

House Bill 1572 by Reps. Contin and Lelivelt provides any territory within a street lighting district which is annexed to a city, a village, or town that provides street light shall be disconnected as of Jan. 1, 1960. If there are outstanding bonds, such territory shall remain liable for its proportionate share.

Countryside News and Views

By WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE
Asst. Cook County Farm Advisor

This is the time of year when many of us give thought to lawn seeding. If you are establishing a new lawn, September is a good time to start.

If you are renovating an existing lawn, September is still a good time to do the renovating job. You should start in August, however, by killing weeds, applying fertilizer and lime, and grub proofing materials if needed. In seeding new lawns, soil fertilization and preparation is very important. On this well prepared seed bed, you should sow a grass of an adapted variety, or a mixture of adapted varieties. Do not go bargain hunting when you purchase seed. Good seed is a must for a beautiful turf in years to come.

Those of you considering some lawn work this fall, should take advantage of the information in at Silver Cross hospital following a heart attack Thursday morning which occurred as he was inspecting construction work in Lockport. He managed to drive to his home where the inhalator squad was called and he was removed by ambulance to the hospital where he expects to remain for some time.

At the 4H Federation meeting held last week, I heard a most inspiring report on the recent 4H Junior Leadership Conference. Bob Stelwagen, Tinley Park, and Janet Rietveld, Chicago Heights, attended this conference during the last week in July. Their report to the Federation covered their activities from the time they set foot on the grounds at 4H Memorial Camp near Monticello, until the time they got in the car to come home. The enthusiasm shown by both of these young people, and their stage presence before the Federation, was most inspiring. I hope 4H Clubs in this area will take advantage of the opportunity to hear these two capable young people tell about their experiences at this conference.

Before the Federation meeting, Julia and Sophie Dvrez, Blue Island, and Leslie Waring, Worth, brought in three trophies which their 4H club had won in parades in Chicago Ridge, Worth and Blue Island. They also had pictures of their float. From the pictures you could see that considerable time and effort had gone into the preparation of these floats and one could not help but marvel at the resourcefulness and creativity shown by the young people who had arranged the float. Other 4H Clubs have taken part in parades in their communities. I think this is an excellent idea and helps to spread the word about 4H club work.
